Booklet of the Month

This booklet explains how your sex life may be affected by cancer and its treatment and how to get support and treatment that can help.

It is for anyone who needs information about this before, during or after cancer treatment.

Whether or not you are in a relationship or having sex.

It can be helpful whatever your sexual orientation or gender.

World Cancer Day 4 February 2023

World Cancer Day is a truly global event. 2023 continues the 'Close the Gap' campaign. Uniting our voices and taking action.

Celebrating real - world progress in its many forms and allowing momentum to fuel our fight for fairness. Building stronger alliances and innovative new collaborations.

Together we can achieve almost anything.

Welcome to our new MCISS Assistant

We are sure you will make our new team member, Jackie Wright, feel welcome! Jackie will be working alongside Beth and Marie as Macmillan Information & Support Assistant.

Jackie has previously worked in University libraries and student support services offering information, advice and a listening ear. She has also worked in a number of primary schools working with the youngest children, so feels her patience and sense of humour have been exercised! Jackie says she feels so proud and excited to be joining the MCISS Team
